HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion by use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

DATES TO JULY 6.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, July 4.—The President will submit to the Attorney General the question of the legality of General Canby's requirements that the members elect of the Virginia Legislature must take an iron clad oath in order that uniformity may prevail in reorganizing the unreconstructed States under the reconstruction laws

Instructions to Minister Sickles were drawn up at the department of State with much precaution, and soon after delivered to him under such circumstance as to prevent premature disclosure of contents, but it has since transpired in official circles that it is safe to assert that there is no instruction relative to Cuba

Gen Van Wyck left for New York to night, having just returned from Virginia. He reports the contest in that State to be excited and bitter The Constitution without the test oath and disfranchising clause will be adopted. The vote for Governor will be very heavy and close.

CHICAGO, July 4.—The Tribune's Washington special says Gen. J. G. Blunt, special attorney of the first regiment of Indiana Home Guards, has published a long letter in relation to the operations of John Wright, agent to recover and pay over bounties due to these soldiers under acts of Congress

There will be a regimental celebration of the 4th in Washington, as the city council has declined to make any arrangement.

New York News.

NEW YORK, July 4.—The drum fish have made a destructive raid on the oyster beds between Staten Island and Keyport. The damage and destruction of oysters and other shell fish is estimated at $100,000.

Some 142,000 emigrants have landed at this port since January 1st.

The North German bark Christie, from Bremen, with 270 emigrant passengers, arrived at quarantine this morning with a number of cases of small pox on board. Two deaths occurred during the passage. Fourteen passengers were to be taken to the small pox hospital at Blackwell's Island.

Shocking Railroad Accident.

CINCINNATI, July 4.—A construction train on the new Louisville and Cincinnati Railroad, consisting of cars too heavily laden with iron and carrying a number of workmen, broke through a bridge twelve miles from Covington. The bridge was twenty-five feet high. Seven cars went down, turning over in their descent, and several of them broke to pieces. Two men were killed and fifteen wounded, several dangerously. The bridge was a complete wreck. The passenger train from Louisville and five cars full of passengers passed over the bridge thirty minutes before the accident.

Cuban News.

HAVANA, July 3.—General Pueblo has been ordered to relieve General Hatonia, commanding the Central Department. He sailed this evening with one thousan fresh troops for Neuvitas, whence he will proceed direct to Puerto Principe. Bronca says the number of insurgents around the latter place is largely increased, but the cholera and yellow fever are making sad havoc among them. Neuvitas is as healthy as usual at this season. The new Captain General is gaining general sympathy by his attempts to pacify all classes. Sanguinary steps have been falsely attributed to him. He is now busily engaged in investigating the cases with the object of ordering the release of innocence.

Miscellaneous Telegrams.

MEMPHIS, July 4.—The Republican Convention to night split again; two sets of Legislative candidates nominated. No prospect of harmonizing the factions. The speeches were very bitter.

ST. LOUIS, July 4.—John McFaul, County Marshal, was cowhided on the street by a woman.

To-day is the warmest of the season, 98° in the shade; one death from sun stroke.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 4.—The Germans of the city celebrated the 4th to-day. A procession composed of various German societies accompanied by bands of music marched through the streets to a grove where the declaration was read, and an oration delivered.

RICHMOND, July 4.—The funeral of Colonel Branch, killed by falling from the bridge last Friday was attended this afternoon, by a large concourse of citizens. Some alarm was created at the church, where the immense crowd caused the vestibule floor to sink, but no one was hurt. Two companies of troops have been ordered from Ft. Monroe, to here on election day.

MEMPHIS, July 4.—The balloonists descended at Masons at sunset yesterday in consequence of the threatening appearance of the weather They report the new propulsive machine to be a perfect success.

NASHVILLE, July 4.—The Germans celebrated the 4th of July to day by a procession, speeches and a barbacue at the Horticultural Gardens Citizens of all classes were present during the day.

Railroad Bridge Across the Missouri

KANSAS CITY, July 3.—It is estimated that 40,000 people were present to witness the opening of the first railroad bridge across the Missouri river. A large procession of civic societies and invited guests passed over the bridge, after which the structure was subjected to a severe test by placing five locomotive and a train loaded with iron on each span. The result was highly satisfactory The committee of investigation was composed of Maj. McFarland, of the U. S. corps of engineers, with the chief engineers of the principal Western railroads. After the completion of the test an oration was delivered by Gen. John A. McClernand. At a banquet given in the evening a large number of distinguished guests were present.

Further Cuban News

NEW YORK, July 4.—Dispatches have been received by a lady of this city, a near relative of the general commanding the Cuban forces They give a full account of an attempt to succor the Spanish forces at Las Tunas. A train with a force of 250 men was sent to relieve the garrison of that place. They were intercepted, and Gen Marti, of the cavalry, and a large portion of the train was captured Spanish loss 200 They succeeded in reaching Las Limas with a part of the train, and found the garrison suffering from cholera and acclimating fever, which had almost rendered it helpless. After a few days the disease broke out among the reinforcements and their encampment was vacated. After a severe loss the garrison succeeded in their retreat In Inco Villes district the forces under Lescapedos have been repulsed with considerable slaughter and the whole territory regained to the Cuban army. The result has given courage to the inhabitants. The recent outrages perpetrated by Lescar, and the fact that no quarter is to be given to the revolutionists, whether actively engaged in the field or in sympathy with their cause, has inspired the inhabitants with intense hatred of Spanish rule and driven thousands into the army. Quesada, thus reinforced, has ordered an active offensive movement of the entire army. Dispatches state that he has regained a number of important points and is now master of the northwest part of the island It is reported that the instructions of the new Captain General Dekoda are to carry out the policy of Dulce—that of conciliation—and positively to control the volunteers and maintain the supremacy of Spain, and that orders have been issued to prevent such atrocities as have been recently been committed by Lesca The effect of this policy upon the volunteers has been to produce dissensions throughout the entire organization of volunteers, who have given in their adhesion to De Rodas' administration They are denounced as traitors

HAVANA, July 4.—Captain General De Rodas, to day reviewed the regular and volunteer forces in the city He was received by the volunteers with enthusiastic cheers The Captain General has released several political prisoners

The Deputies elected to the Constitutional Cortes from Porto Rico have sailed for Spain.

An arrival from Carracas, June 23, reports General Bilger, President of the Department of Senellila, has collected an army of 6,000 and was importing material of war, with the intention of resisting the authority of the Federal Government. The port of Maracabe, recently closed by Federal decree, is situated in the Department of Senellila. A commission has been sent from Carracas to fortify that section of country

Advices from St Domingo to June 30, reported that Gen. Superor, with the steamer Telegraph, had been bombarding Puerto Pato. On landing he issued a decree, declaring the Bay of Samana no longer in possession of Baez, consequently all treaties made by him with the U S Goverment for the cession or use of that bay are null and void. The American steamer Hero still remained at Samana

The Anniversary.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The Fourth was celebrated yesterday nearly all over the country, and the regular report from the East and West was entirely taken up with the details The exercises in the various cities were uninteresting. Nothing of importance is reported. The celebrations consisted of the usual jollifications and in New York of a balloon ascension.

A son of Hon. Albert J. Wright was drowned in Boston harbor.

The day was celebrated in Richmond, Charleston, and other cities.

At Wilmington, North Carolina, a steam tug exploded, killing one man and badly injuring two others

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The only public celebration in Washington was by the Sunday School of colored children, who paraded the streets with bands of music. Afterwards they amused themselves at the President's house and grounds. Many persons left the city for pleasure elsewhere. The city was remarkably quiet, with the exception of a general ringing of bells for a short time in the morning.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The Fourth was celebrated yesterday in a very patriotic manner. In the morning there was a grand parade of the First Division of military, and in the evening the usual display of fireworks. All the public places were decorated with flags, and every one seemed bent on celebrating the day. There were twenty casualties from pyrotechnics, mostly in this city, and twenty in Brooklyn, one of the latter resulted in the killing of a young lady.

There were twenty-one small fires in this city and nineteen in Brooklyn during the day and evening.

Political News.

RICHMOND, July 5.—Gov. Wells addressed a large meeting of colored people in the Park to-day.

The preparation by the military and police for the election to-morrow is quite complete. It is thought notwithstanding the excited state of feelings, that the election will pass off quietly A large number of extra police have been sworn, including fifty colored.

The negroes have been holding a political camp meeting in the Park to-day, but to-night all is quiet.

BUFFALO, July 5.—The first public meeting of the Women's Suffrage Association was held to day at St. James Hall. It was addressed by Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Anthony, Mrs. Bloomer, Mrs. Livermore and others.

Fire in Whitehall.

WHITEHALL, N. Y., July 5.—A large fire broke out this morning in M. W. Cook & Son's lumber. Their mill and a quantity of lumber were totally destroyed. Damage from $15,000 to $20,00.

Swindling in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 5.—Several days since Capt. Murphy, Special Detective, arrested two women who had in their possession a portion of a large sum of currency stolen from the Treasury Department at Washington. Forged signatures were signed to treasury notes. A large sum was passed in Augusta. These women implicated H. M. Turner, the recently appointed negro postmaster at Macon. Turner was arrested by the U. S. Marshal and brought to Atlanta. The investigation is now going on, but efforts are being made to keep it secret. further developments are looked for.

New Mode of Paying the National Debt.

BOSTON, July 5.—A meeting of the labor reform agitators was held in the old Harmony Grove, of Farmington, Mass., yesterday. Numerous speeches were made, and resolutions adopted denouncing the Republican party and the Mass Legislature, and favoring the immediate payment of the national debt by assessment.

The Pacific Railroad.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Senator Roscoe Conkling yesterday telegraphed the Secretary of Interior that he has just passed over the entire Pacific railroad, making the trip one way by daylight, and had observed the work carefully. The road bed of each company appears to have been honestly constructed and equal to any new road he had ever seen. The sidings, embankments, stone work, and structures of all kinds found on approved roads are rapidly approaching completion. Work is going forward vigorously all along the line. Material in abundance has already been provided Considering the vast obstacles and the result, he thinks the work and its equipment fully up to reasonable requirements and expectations. As to safety and comfort there is no question. Senators Conkling and B. F Wade arrived in this city to-day, en route to the East.

Cuban Affairs.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The Cubans here have the following advices: The Spanish troops, between the 21st and 22d of June, attacked the forces of Gen. Jordan, near Holguin. After a fight, which it is reported lasted eight hours, they were repulsed and compelled to take refuge in the town. The Cuban loss is near two hundred killed and wounded. Among those killed were twenty Americans. The Spanish loss is about the same. The Spanish troops consisted of two brigades. They outnumbered the Cubans two to one. General Jordan commanded the Revolutionary forces.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, June 3.—The Times to-day says the votes in the House of Lords last evening have had the effect to render the Irish Church bill more favorable to the established church and more effectively partial in its provisions. Archbishop Cullen has addressed a letter to the officers of the Catholic College, saying that if the bill is mutilated in the House of peers, the nation must have a full measure of justice.

MADRID June 3.—In the Cortes to day, Ministers of the Interior and Justices declared that the clergy and municipal authorities were ready and willing to take the oath prescribed by the Constitution.

Admiral Topete, in reply to a question of Senor Orense, said the idea of the Republic was impossible now. The monarchy had been voted and was represented by the Regent.

National troops have been dispatched against the Carlists in the Andalusia region.

The silence which has been maintained, concerning General Dulce's report and his administration of state affairs, in Cuba, causes much anxiety. A strong Republican manifesto has been published in Seville. Its publication was simultaneous with the departure from that city of a party of Republicans, numbering 1,000. It is rumored they have gone to Portugal and will re enter Spain through Estremadura. Troops have been sent in pursuit. A number of Carlists have been arrested

LISBON, July 3.—A vessel just from Fayal brings news that a serious disturbance has broken out in various parts of the Azores, in consequence of the increase of taxes

BREST, July 3.—A dispatch from the Great Eastern, dated Friday evening, states that the steamer has run 1,020 knots from Brest, and paid out 1,44½ knots cable.

BREST, July 4.—At noon on Saturday the Great Eastern was 1,145 knots from Brest and paid out 1,324 knots of cable Everything was working well.

PARIS, July 4.—Miral and several members of the Corps legislatif propose to bring in a motion that greater developments be given to the action and authority of the Corps Legislatif, that the address in reply to the speech from the throne be established, that the right and practice of interpolation be organized on a larger scale, that the right to amend projects for laws be extended and that the Chamber have the right to elect its own President It is rumored that the Government will accept these reforms.

The negotiations between France and Belgium for a commercial treaty closed with a satisfactory understanding upon all points.

LIVERPOOL, July 4.—The Viceroy of Egypt has gone to Paris.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

JACKSONVILLE, July 6.—We had a pleasant and delightful celebration here, yesterday A splendid oration was delivered by Hon. James D. Fay. No accidents took place, and a magnificent display of fireworks in the evening, witnessed by over 1,500 people, ended the finest celebration ever seen in Southern Oregon

Who Get Married.

RELATIVE DECLINE OF THE "NATIVE AMERICAN POPULATION."

The Metropolitan marriage and birth registration shows some interesting facts concerning the connubial propensities of the population of Brooklyn and New York. As in the case of all reports from the Metropolitan authorities, the returns are lumped and we have to take the two cities together The registration is by no means complete, it seems to be left pretty much to the inclination of the officiating clergymen whether marriages are registered or not. From the statistics given it would appear that the disinclination to matrimony and maternity among Americans is not confined to the New England States. Of the marriages registered in New York over two-thirds are of foreigners, and the registration of births show a still greater proportion of children born to foreign parents. In 1868 the marriages of 13,582 persons were registered, of which 9,238 are entered as foreigners and 4,350 as native born. The number of births registered during the year was 12,590; of native parentage 8,264. From this it would seem that New York, like Massachusetts, is chiefly indebted to its foreign born citizens for keeping up the population, and that the original American stock is in danger of dying out. Much has been said lately upon the subject of the disinclination of American young men to marry and assume family responsibilities, and the aversion of the American woman to the cares of maternity, but the community has not yet been aroused to a proper sense of this growing social evil, and its effects moral and physical. It is a delicate subject to discuss, and can only be treated as a moral question, for the pulpit rather than the press, since the only remedy is by arousing the religious sense of responsibility for the performance of our duties in life, for which men and women must sacrifice their selfish love of ease and indulgence.

The statistics further tend to show that the disinclination to marriage is greater among American men than among American women; the latter marry more foreigners than the former do. The ages at which people are most inclined to marry may be judged by these statistics. The women marry much younger than the men, as has ever been the case, while the former keep up the connubial habit later in life. Between the extreme ages of seventy and eighty years forty-four persons were married last year, of whom forty-three were men and one woman At the other extreme we find only fifty-six males under twenty getting married against twelve hundred and fifty-six females. The greatest marrying age among women is between twenty and twenty-five and thirty. About two-thirds of the whole number of women married were under twenty-five, beyond which the female prospect of matrimony seems to decline rapidly, though some allowance in such calculations should be made, perhaps, for the natural inclination of the ladies to keep in their teens as long as possible, and to forget a few birthdays in making the statistical return.—Brooklyn Eagle.

THE CELEBRATION.—The ninety-third anniversary of American Independence was celebrated in this city on a scale never exceeded in Oregon, either as to numbers participating, or as to the magnitude and elaborateness of the ceremonies. As early as 8 o'clock A. M. the streets began to fill with people arriving from the country, from Oregon City, from Vancouver, and the Columbia river settlements; and by 9 A. M. there were dense masses everywhere on Front and First and the cross streets, proceeding from Washington as the grand centre; while as far back as Third street there were crowds and groups on almost every corner, and upon every balcony and portico. Still the stream of human life came pouring in from all quarters, by steamboat, in wagons and carriages, on horseback and on foot, till at 10 o'clock there were more people on the streets and in sight from the line of the procession than were ever before seen congregated in this State.

As is usual and apparently inevitable on such occasions there was some delay in getting the procession formed and under way, but considering all there was to do in getting everything into readiness, the committees are entitled to great credit. We doubt if any celebration of the same magnitude was ever conducted with less delay or in such manner as to give less ground for complaint of any kind.

The procession was formed at about ten o'clock, as heretofore announced in programme, and after marching through the principal streets, reached the grounds between Morrison and Yamhill and Park and Twelfth streets at about 12 o'clock. Here the exercises were conducted as announced, hereinbefore in the programme. Everybody in the vast swaying crowd about the stand, being anxious to get position so as to see and hear George Francis Train, crowded, talked and hustled each other about, making such a roar of noise as drowned almost every word uttered on the stand by President, Reader, Chaplain, or "any other man," till Mr. Train was introduced. For the first five minutes, after coming forward, he devoted himself to a vain effort to get the audience hushed and hushed. He succeeded perhaps better than any other man could have done; but everybody came to see him and hear him and every American thinks he can see better and hear better standing on tiptoe, and—the most of them stood on tiptoe, or better still, on the seats prepared, or on blocks or chips, or anything that served to elevate them so much as half an inch from the ground. Mr. Train has a pretty good voice for a large audience and great physical force to sustain it. He exerted himself to the utmost to make himself heard, and perhaps half the people heard half he said—not more. There was too much roaring in the aggregated voices of the crowd, who, not being able to hear the orator, would talk. They would have talked and the boys would have snapped their fire crackers, if the angel Gabriel had been on the stand tooting his horn. Of the oration, we cannot speak in detail, as we found it utterly impossible to get near enough to hear more than now and then a sentence. It is said, by those who did hear, to have been characteristic of George Francis Train.

At the conclusion of the oration, Mr. Roberts, the Chief Engineer and Superintendent of the North Pacific Railroad, was introduced, who made a short speech. Mr. Roberts is a man of long experience in railroad building, having witnessed and assisted in laying the first rail on the first road of consequence built in the United States, and having been connected in some way with almost every road since built. Mr. Caufield, a Director of the same company, was also introduced and he made a brief speech. The remarks of these two gentlemen were listened to with great interest. At the conclusion of Mr. Caufield's remarks, the assemblage broke up.

One of the most decidedly handsome features of the procession was the Liberty Car, containing a beautiful young girl robed as the Goddess of Liberty, and seated in the midst of thirty-seven smaller girls, dressed in white, wearing floral wreaths and representing each, one of the States of the Union, each being distinguished by a banner on which was printed the name of her State. The car was an imposing edifice, erected upon a large wagon and was profusely decorated with banners, streamers and evergreens. It was drawn by eight [illegible] horses, by the side of which walked eight uniformed men. The whole affair was gotten up and managed by Mr. D. F. Harrington, who richly deserves this special mention.

The fire men of this city, Vancouver and Oregon City, constituted a very important and handsome feature of the procession. Readily, without them, the procession would have been scarcely creditable. Their engines were in splendid condition, everything being polished and as good as a new pin. The Washington Guard, the Emmet Guard and the 23d U. S. Infantry, presented a fine appearance.

After the dismissal of the crowd at the stand, the firemen of this city, with their invited guests from abroad, repaired to Moffitt's wharf where they sat down to a bountiful and costly dinner, spread by our firemen.

In the evening, the vast crowds of people who had been for three or four hours dispersed about the city, again assembled on the open grounds just west of the Plaza, to witness the display of fireworks. At nine o'clock when the signal rockets went up, there were not less than twelve to fifteen thousand spectators present. They covered, in dense mass, all the ground between Ninth and Twelfth streets and Morrison and Yamhill—not less than three whole blocks—while hundreds were scattered along all the adjoining streets and open spaces. It was, unquestionably, the largest gathering ever seen in this state.

The fireworks, discharged under the superintendence of Prof. Hughes, were quite satisfactory, though not so varied as most people had been led to expect. The chief piece the last one—represented a train of cars, consisting of locomotive, tender and passenger cars of the Oregon Central Railroad, jumping from one arch to another, a distance of eighty feet, while on the top was seen the telegraph wire surmounted by the American eagle. The arches on each side of the piece were represented those of the Atlantic and Pacific, surmounted by United States flags. The whole piece was done in colored lance work, set off by garbs, green, ground and crimson fires, bomb shell and bunch rockets, with streamers, gold rain and lights interwoven, in the background. The firing of this piece was accompanied by a flash of fire backward and forward upon the telegraph wire stretched across the entire ground, and was received with prolonged and deafening applause. This concluded the public performances of the day.

LAYING THE CORNER-STONE OF ODD FELLOWS' TEMPLE.—The ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the Odd Fellows' Temple at this city took place at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, July 5th. The stone was laid by M. W. Grand Master, John M. Bacon; an oration was delivered by P. G., F. S. Gethelen; and Rev. Dr. Wythe acted as Chaplain. The following is a list of the articles deposited in the cavity of the stone: Names of Incorporators and Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows' Hall Association; copy of proceedings of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., of Oregon, from organization to 1868; names of Grand Officers, 1869; Constitution, By-Laws and Roll of Members of Samaritan Lodge, No. 2, Hassalo Lodge, No. 15, and Ellison Encampment, No. 1, I. O. O. F.; Annual and Semi-Annual Reports of Minerva Lodge, No. 19; Constitution and By-Laws of Orient Lodge No. 17, and Vancouver Lodge, No. 3; Constitution and By-Laws of General Relief Committee, I. O. O. F., Portland; copy of Constitution of Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M., Oregon; copy of proceedings of the first session of Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M., Oregon; copy of same, 1868; list of names of the present and past Grand Officers A. F. & A. M., Oregon, from organization of Grand Lodge in 1851; copy of Constitution of Willamette Engine Co., No. 1, Portland; Report of Odd Fellows' Hall Association, San Francisco; copy of OREGONIAN, Herald, Commercial, Willamette Farmer, Enterprise, Unionist and Christian Advocate; various coins.

The following is a synopsis of Mr. Bates's address:

BIRTHDAYS AND BIRTHS.—Two months ago since the birthday of that tree of Odd Fellowship was celebrated, which was planted on A[illegible]'s soil half a century ago, a tree whose foundation rests upon the depth of time and whose top extends to the heights of eternity, while its branches extend and their leaves become more and more dense, the[illegible]nds upon the[illegible]

"In this land of the free and home of the brave,
We are dwelling and rejoicing under its benevolent shade."

This day we are assembled to lay the corner stone of a temple, to illustrate the principles of that corner-stone upon whose solid basis the whole superstructure of our Order securely rests—the principles of friendship, love and truth. Yes, the temple of Odd Fellowship is seated on a rock, above the race of the fighting elements and inaccessible to all the malice of man. The rolling thunder breaks below and the more terrible instruments of human fury cannot reach such a sublime height. Engaging, indeed, are the sentiments of our Order; they brighten up the very face of nature and operate like the sun, that shining on a dusky cloud or falling rain, paints on them the most glorious colors within the whole circle of nature. What is Odd Fellowship? It is a boundless ocean of bliss and glory; human minds are smaller streams, which arising first from this great ocean amid all their wanderings return to it and lose themselves amid that immensity of perfection. Without it the beauties of the world are but shows—the stars of Heaven glittering orbs of ice. Odd Fellowship, you must have it in you as the music of a well tuned bell, as a refreshing spring from whence flows eternal truth. It cultivates and softens the gentle affections of our heart, which can never be truly enjoyed except in the bosom of benevolence and friendship. Benevolence is passing all limits of country and ocean; it sends forth its blessings to the ends of the earth, makes the wilderness of heathenism bloom, and joins all nations in the fraternal bonds of one holy and living faith. Friendship is for all men: it does not depend on circumstance or condition; it is of the soul; is filled with the spirit of God, which is the spirit of eternal love.

While the mind and the heart are in harmony, love inspires the noblest sentiments, fills our bosom with benevolence and destroys all the seeds of vice. By its delightful influence the bitter cup of human affliction is sweetened, and the freshest flowers plentifully strewn along the thorny paths of life.

Another reason like this offers a new instance for our friendly relations one towards the other. Let, therefore, hand grasp hand with fraternal feelings, from heart and soul; let there be presented forth an open side of affection, for the great principles that underlie our organization, an organization whose summit is towering towards the skies and whose golden inscription will shine like characters of living light on our fraternity. Bind, oh, brothers, your souls in a still closer union! Let the fidelity with which the Order is now administered, continue to direct it, and it will be from generation to generation a perpetual source of public good, a dispensation of friendship, love and truth in its most important associations with the destiny of man. Man is the dome of the material world, the window through which Heaven illuminates the earth; man's course is onward, and the new dispensation is coming: it comes like a rolling flood, bearing on its muscular waves the ruins of the temple of error. Old systems, old despotisms, old theological doctrines are crumbling into dust, one after the other. Men and nations may remain blind to their own interests and false to their rights of humanity; but the sun of truth is rising, teaching in the most forcible manner that all ideas, all institutions, all theories are valuable only just so far as they subserve the common welfare and progressive destiny of the family of man. Yes, the era is nigh and the judgment day, when truth shall prevail, will soon arrive. A general revolution is on hand, it is already kindled, truth will fan the spark into a flame, this will consume confusion and sin, and all will come forth, purified and happy. The sun of righteousness will arise in the horizon of a universal brotherhood and shed his genial rays over all the fields of peace, joy and human happiness.

Brothers and friends, the future I have drawn is by no means colored by illusions, provided we follow the principles our Order teaches; but if we fail, the splendid superstructure of our institution will fall and moulder away, never, never to rise again.

Brothers, I will not longer detain you than to admonish you by all the obligations you have assumed, and the affections you cherish, to banish from your hearts all sentiments of discord, to cement the sacred bonds of our fraternity and to practice those noble sentiments which should and virtue, honor and universal peace—the sentiments of friendship, love and truth—of faith and charity.

THE REGATTA.—The sailing race on the afternoon of the 5th, was an animated affair. Seven boats were entered. The Turtle, by C. B. Talbott; Fleetwing, by Upton and Bowman, Flying Cloud, by Welch and Gilman, Elsie, by J. W. Stevens, Minnie, by Robert Scott, Topsey, by Austin and Clark, Pirate, by —, and Kate Kearney, by J. Tungate. The start was made from the line of Washington street, the boats being stationed according to lot, beginning the line at the eastern shore. Capt. Turnbull, of the Fannie Troupe acted as umpire. The boats got off at four minutes past five o'clock, sailed down the river and around the buoy North Star, anchored off the gas works, then up the river to Lamb's buoy near the foot of Rose Island, thence back to the line of Washington street. The Elsie was delayed a little just at the moment of starting, by getting her mooring line afoul of her center board, and again by an accident to her boom. The Fleetwing was badly started, being allowed to fall off with the wind, by which she lost two or three hundred yards. The Flying Cloud, also, got a bad start, and fell behind everything. Most of the others went off well, though there was scarcely one but made some mistake in sailing before rounding the buoy. When they passed up the river, they crossed the string line in the following order: Kate Kearney, in 5.13; Pirate, in 5.15; Minnie, in 5:15½; Topsey in 5.16; Elsie, in 5.17; Fleetwing, in 5:17; Turtle in 5.17 and Flying Cloud, in 5.22. After running the upper buoy, they reached home in the following order: Elsie, at 6-14 o'clock; Minnie, 6.18; Pirate, 6.19½; Fleetwing, 6.17½; Topsey, 6.19; Turtle 6.24. The Kate Kearney withdrew from the race on the home stretch, and the Flying Cloud was disabled. The Elsie was declared winner.

FIRE.—About two o'clock yesterday morning the dwelling house of Mr. James Wilson, corner of First and Mill streets, together with his barn, was consumed by fire. An adjoining building was damaged to the amount of perhaps two hundred dollars. Three valuable horses, with harness and some grain and hay were burned in the stable. Mr. Wilson's loss is about $3,600—insurance on the house burned $700. Three of the engines were on hand in a short time, and were instrumental in saving two or three houses adjoining. No. 2's got on the ground but was disabled and did not work. The fire originated in the stable, and is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Mr. Wilson and family did not get out of their house till it was all in a blaze—a narrow escape. A part of the furniture was got out, but mostly in a damaged condition. The adjoining house, which was damaged, belonged also to Mr. Wilson—insured for $700. His loss over and above insurance will be not far from $2,000. Mr. Whaley, occupying the last mentioned house, lost something by way of damaged furniture.

MILITARY ITEMS.—Major General George H. Thomas commanding the Military Division of the Pacific, accompanied by Colonels Hough and Willard of his staff, arrived in the city yesterday evening by the up river steamer Julia. Colonels Ludington and Kellogg, also of his staff, preceded the arrival of their chief one day, having come via Camps Warner and Harney. The entire party expect to sail in a few days by the steamship Fidelity, which has been chartered and placed under command of White of the Revenue service, for the trip, for Alaska, where the General goes on a tour of inspection.

Brevet Lieut. Colonel Elisha J. Bailey, surgeon, arrived by the Fidelity, en route for Alaska, where he goes as Medical Director of that Department.

Brevet Lieut. Colonel H. R. Wirtz, surgeon, arrived by the steamship Pacific, being senior in rank to Colonel Ghiselin, he assumes the duties of Medical Director of the Department, the latter remaining on duty as the attending surgeon.

AN IMPROVED MILKING ARRANGEMENT.—Mr. E. Spaddon, of Clatsop county, yesterday showed us a new milking arrangement, of his own invention, which, it seems to us, must commend itself to dairymen or even to townsfolks who have cows to milk, and care for neatness. It is not a machine for milking, nor for saving labor but to secure convenience and perfect cleanliness of the milk. The milker sits on a covered bucket, into which the milk runs, through a flexible tube and strainer, the tube being attached to a funnel. The milk is drawn by hand into the funnel which is held by a simple and convenient arrangement close under the teats of the cow. The arrangement is such that the milk goes into the bucket strained and perfectly clean, and without having been worked into foam, as by the old method of milking. The contrivance is so simple and yet so effectual for the purposes sought, that it has already come into quite general use where it has been shown.

CONSIGNEES OF BARK ALMATIA.—The bark Almatia, Richardson, Master, sailed from San Francisco, May 18th, was becalmed first two or three days out, and experienced light winds all the voyage. She sailed in company with the Whistler, most of the time, the two arriving nearly together. The following is the Almatia's manifest:

H Failing 1686 pkgs; Knapp & Burrell 36; Burgess & Shindler 33; Hoyt 32; J Whittaker 8, E Lowenstein 162; Smith & Davis 258; E J N 192; H & B Lowenstein 4.3; C F Parker 46; Hodge & Calef 48; Hawley, Dodd & Co 335; Walker & Bro 20 M Seller 5; Quackenbush 20; Freedman & Co 158; H & H 66; Oregon City Mfg Co 7 Gen Rufus Saxton 49; L Tilleston 2; H W Corbett 12; B F Smith 20; R G Sneath 708; J C Murdock 28; J & B 8 3; W Young 47; P D & H Co 155, P T Co 56; James Trumbull 64; C & H 5 G Kabberg 5; J C, Salem, 10; E Milwain 66.

MILITARY ORDER.—The following is the text of the general order issued from Headquarters, Department of the Columbia, July 6th:

"General Order, No 21—Brevet Lieutenant Colonel H. R. Wirtz, surgeon, having reported at these Headquarters, in accordance with paragraph 5, Special Orders No. 92, C. S., from the Adjutant General's Office, is hereby announced as Medical Director of the Department, and will comply with the requirements of the order referred to."

RAILROAD WORK.—Yesterday a force of seventy-five Chinamen was sent from this city up the river to establish their camps preparatory to going to work on the East Side railroad. Another party of the same class of laborers will follow to-day. Next week more will be sent, and a large laboring force will be organized as rapidly as possible. A large number of white men will also be employed at once.

AT WORK.—Capt. Ankeny set work going in full blast, yesterday, upon his brick block, on North Front street. This is to be a fine, large building of two eighteen feet stories above the basement, with room on the ground floor for three stores. The heavy iron columns and castings for the front are now lying upon Couch & Flanders' wharf. Capt Ankeny is making it look somewhat lively in his neighborhood.

STAGING.—To-day Jamison's stages will start on the new line from Portland via Taylor's Ferry to Dayton, thence to Lafayette and McMinnville. After to-day the stages will leave here every Tuesday and Saturday, conveying mails and Wells, Fargo & Co's Express. The old line by way of Hillsboro and Forest Grove, will continue as before.

MANIFEST OF BRIG NORTH STAR.—The brig North Star, B. S. Hatch, master, arrived Monday morning, twenty-five days from Honolulu, consigned to McCraken, Merrill & Co. The following is her manifest: 150 kegs sugar to Allen & Lewis; 4,836 kegs sugar to McCraken, Merrill & Co.; 200 kegs molasses and 50 bags farina, to same.

LECTURE POSTPONED.—The lecture announced for last evening, by Rev W. H. Hillery, was postponed till next Monday evening, the 12th inst., when it will be delivered at the new M. E. Zion church, on Third street. The tickets issued for Tuesday evening will be good for next Monday evening.

THE SALUTES fired on the 5th were by detachments of soldiers from Vancouver, under the direction of Captain Babbitt, of the Ordnance Department. The movements of the men being in accordance with artillery practice, attracted much attention and admiration.

EDITORIAL VISITORS.—During the celebration, we had as visitors in the city, Coll Van Cleve of the Albany Register, Mr. C. B. Bellinger of the Albany Democrat, Capt Adams of the Vancouver Register, Berlah Brown of the Salem Press, and A. L. Stinson of the Farmer.

CIRCUS.—Lee's circus started yesterday morning up the Columbia for a tour through Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It will probably return to this city in time to make a tour of the Willamet valley before the opening of the State Fair.

SUPERVISING ARCHITECT.—A Washington paper says Mr. A. B. Mullett, Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department, will soon visit the Pacific coast to look after the construction of the public buildings in Oregon and California.

NEWS SOMEWHAT OLD.—Several of the vessels in port arrived Sunday night, after the reporter had gone home for the night. No paper was issued Tuesday morning, and the announcements of arrivals are, therefore, rather late.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Mr. James Wilson desires us to present his acknowledgment of indebtedness to the firemen of this city for their prompt and strenuous efforts to save his property from fire, yesterday morning.

MATCH GAME.—On Monday, the 5th, the Young Grant Club, of Oregon City, and the Athletics, of Portland, played the first game of a match, at East Portland, the score resulting, Grants, 28 runs; Athletics, 30 runs.

TRAIN GOING TO VICTORIA.—George Francis Train, accompanied by several gentlemen of this city, will leave to-morrow evening by the steamer Telfair, for Victoria. He will return by way of Puget Sound.

The Telfair and Wright will sail for Victoria and Puget Sound at 6 o'clock to-morrow evening.

TO SAIL.—The Pacific will sail for San Francisco at 7 o'clock this evening.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE WESTERN.—Sam Smith began, yesterday, a general overhauling of the Western Hotel, with a view to putting it into first class condition.

FREIGHT FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamer Pacific brought upon [illegible] the steamer Alaska [illegible] and the Whistler [illegible].

THANKS.—The [illegible] company in tendering to Ned Wicks their thanks for [illegible] refreshments, sent up yesterday.

THE PRINTER OF [illegible] and W. H. Avery returns thanks to the Press and Business Men of the city of Portland for the [illegible] given while showing the MAMMOTH OX also, to many friends who have called. May your lives be both pleasant and useful. May no thorns grow in your pathway. May you always have plenty [illegible] to drink. Yours, &c.

LADIES' CLOAKS.—Henderson & Cook received, per steamer Pacific, a few more of those beautiful Organdie Lawns, also, with to Muslins and Piques.

BIDS for the construction of a two story Building will be received until the 12th inst. Plans to be seen at C. B. Talbot's office.

NATIONAL

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Washington, D.C.

CHARTERED BY SPECIAL ACT OF CONGRESS!

APPROVED JULY 25, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

OFFICERS:

CLARENCE H. CLARK, Philadelphia, President.
JAY COOKE, Chairman Finance & Executive Committee.
HENRY D. COOKE, Washington, Vice President.
EMERSON W. PEET, Philadelphia, Secretary & Actuary.
M. S. TURNER, Washington, Assistant Secretary.
FRANCIS G. SMITH, M. D., Medical Director.
J. EWING MEARS, M. D., Assistant Medical Director.

THE ATTENTION OF PERSONS CONTEMPLATing insuring their lives, or increasing the amounts of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

NO MONEY SENT OUT OF THE STATE.

ALL PREMIUMS RECEIVED INVESTED IN THE STATE.

THE ADVANTAGES OFFERED ARE:

It is a National Company, chartered by special Act of Congress, 1868.
It has a Paid-up Capital of $1,000,000.
It offers Low Rates of Premium.
It furnishes Larger Insurance for the Money than other Companies for the same money.
It is Definite and Certain in its Terms.
It is a Home Company in every locality.
Its Policies are Exempt from Attachment.
There are no Unnecessary Restrictions in the Policies.
Every Policy is Non-forfeitable.
Policies may be taken which Pay to the Insured their Full Amount and Return all the Premiums so that the Insurance costs Only the Interest on the Annual Payments.
Policies may be taken that will Pay to the Insured, after a certain number of years, During Life, an Annual Income of One-Tenth the amount named in the Policy.
No Extra Rate is charged for Risks upon the Lives of Females.
Insures Not to Pay Dividends, but at so low a cost that dividends will be impossible.

Its Policies are Negotiable.

By the Charter of the Company, certificates of obligations will be issued, agreeing to purchase its Policies at their value which, when accompanied by the Policy duly assigned or transferred, are negotiable, and may be used as collateral security, in making loans from the Company or from other parties.

The Hon. Jno. E. Sandford, Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, in his Report for 1866, speaking of Dividends in Life Insurance Companies, says: "The moment such guarantees cease to be made, and such expectations created, the sooner Life Insurance will come to rest on its true motive, and men insure their lives for security, and not for dividends. The best and most popular companies will then be those that promise only equity, and render all that they promise, and furnish the best security, with the most upright and judicious management."

"By the Stock plan, the full cash effect of the Premium is immediately secured to the Insured, the Company taking ALL the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in Insurance of the Premium paid, is not secured to the Policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself."

POLICIES ISSUED IN GOLD OR CURRENCY.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1869

Labor is Wealth.

It is madness for the people of Oregon to repel any laborer who may come among them, no matter what may be his nationality or what the color of his skin. Every person who can work is an addition to the wealth of our State. There are a thousand avenues of employment, all inviting laborers. Wealth cannot be produced without labor; money cannot be brought into our State from abroad in sufficient quantities to make us wealthy and prosperous, but prosperity must be brought about by labor right here among us. Labor is capital, and every able-bodied man who comes into the State contributes a capital to the common fund, which is quite as good as gold. It is said that the Chinese send the money they earn out of the State. Suppose they do; is not this just what our own people do when they send to foreign countries $400,000,000 yearly to pay for imported goods? If the Chinese send their wages out of the country they do not send out the results of their labor. The railroads built by their labor, remain The goods manufactured by their labor in our mills remain. The products of agriculture, resulting from their labor, remain. All these things help to constitute the wealth of the country. Every Chinaman leaves in the country, in the products of his labor, a full equivalent for the wages paid him. He leaves more; he leaves the profit which his employer has made on the cheap labor he has furnished. It is nonsense and folly to assert that these people, a patient and most industrious race, "add nothing to the wealth of the country." No man, except one utterly blinded by the prejudices of party, would be ridiculous enough to make such an assertion. How can any human being who is a worthy, willing and expert worker, fail to add to the wealth of the country? Will white men who are supposed to be intelligent enough to comprehend at least some of the plainest teachings of common sense, forever lend a willing ear to the clap-traps on this subject? We think not. This utterly foolish and inhuman prejudice is dying out as rapidly as any of the many humbugs which have been exploded during the last ten years.

An "Abiding Faith."

The editor of the Salem Press,—our old acquaintance Berlah, says that from his earliest boyhood he has adhered to the Democratic party with unswerving fidelity. This fact, of course, that he has always been ready to take without question anything labelled "Democratic," and that he has not had sense enough to perceive any difference in the quality of the article which he has been using. To show how accommodating he can be, and how readily he can make his principles conform to any possible requirement, we quote a brief extract from the leading article in the last issue of his paper: "If the choice of the next Democratic Convention for the office of President of a candidate for President MAY be Robert E. Lee, of Virginia, we will support him cordially and zealously, and have a doubt that his Administration would be wisely and judiciously labor for the welfare of the States upon a basis of perpetual peace and good will. If the choice of the Convention should be Salmon P. Chase, we should present him with the abiding trust that he would be true to the principles of the party the nomination of which he would accept." This perfect readiness to do anything the party may require is characteristic of those who have been Democrats "from their earliest boyhood," and who have accepted with many misgivings and tacit submission any set of principles or platform that might be put up for them. Equally ready to support Lee or Chase, equally prepared to contend for a white man's government or accept a negro for a candidate,—the Democracy are certainly in a delightful condition! This "abiding trust" is a fine thing.

In a Nut-Shell.

The Fifteenth Amendment proposes simply to grant equal rights to all citizens of the Republic. Who but one utterly blind supposes that a principle so just and so salutary can be long delayed?

A new proposition is started for paying the national debt. It is to be paid immediately by direct taxation on the property of the Democrats. This is a charming prospect for wealthy Democrats. We commend this plan to our brethren of the Democratic press in Oregon.

The Victoria Evening News quotes from a San Francisco paper a report that George Francis Train is about to go to Victoria, and says: "We will just add, let him come if he dares." Mr. Train will "dare" to go; now let us see what our British cousins will "dare" to do about it.

The Memphis Post says that the Tennessee Democracy, "in casting about for a candidate for Governor, have made overtures to a popular colored clergyman to run for that office, hoping thereby to secure a portion of the colored vote from the Republican candidates. The Democracy are not napping."

The Oakland Gazette announces that the railway between Kiev and Odessa will be opened on August 1. The transfer of the Russian capital to the former city, to which we have already referred, will acquire by the opening of this railway a great political importance. Moscow is connected by steamers with Constantinople and the prospective capital of the Czar will thus be brought within a few day's journey of that of the Sultan

Referring to the advent of people from Asia to these shores, the New York Times wisely says: "We cannot adopt the old exclusive policy of the Japanese and Chinese, and bid these people stay away or go away. They will come; and our citizens will, no doubt, get used to them—with their almond eyes and their sallow complexions. Civilization tends to do away with human antipathies and jealousies of race, and it is a tendency that our progressive people cannot long resist.

That was an entirely original suggestion of the Herald's, the other morning, that we should repudiate our national bonds held in England to offset to the Alabama claims. How long would it take the English bond-holders to transfer their bonds to other parties? And if we undertake to play this game, who would lend us money when we want it hereafter? Our Government couldn't raise money enough to leave during the next hundred years to enable it to go to war with the remnants of the Sioux or Indians.

S. B. Axtell, Democratic Congressman from San Francisco, gives up the fight against the Fifteenth Amendment, says it will be ratified, and that it is "in accordance with the spirit of the age." To show just what he did say we quote from his speech, as reported in a democratic paper, the San Francisco Herald:

"The Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution was not new, and when fifteen other amendments were added, it would be nothing new either. The great probability was that the Amendment would pass, if not at this session, it would at the next, because it was in accordance with the spirit of the age."

The Sacramento Union warns the Central Pacific Railroad Company that they cannot continue their present system of extortion without ruining themselves as well as California. It tells them that rivals are springing up in the Northern and Southern Pacific roads which will take business away from the Central route, and that the latter, by its present short-sighted management, is encouraging the construction of these rival lines. "The time," says the Union, "for the Central route to establish itself and build up its local business is now, when it has no rival. If the management of the road cannot see this, they are unfit to control such weighty interests as have by good fortune been placed in their hands. Two years postponement will ruin their prospects forever, and one year's trifling may do it." The Union is the only California journal which seems to have an intelligent comprehension of these important matters.

General News Items.

The government has issued its last bonds to the Union and Central Pacific railroad companies, making a grand total of over $60,000,000.

"Idlewild," on the Hudson, the home of the late N. P. Willis, has been sold by his widow to Thomas George of Newburg, N. Y., for $50,000

Most of the Germans in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, oppose the proposed celebration, by a portion of the Germans, of the 4th of July on Sunday.

Thus far this year there have been eight hundred applications filed for velocipede patents. One hundred patents have been issued—all for bicycles none having been issued for tricycles.

A bottle containing earth, thrown up at the opening of the Grand Continental Railway at Sacramento, is carefully preserved by the San Francisco Association of California Pioneers.

The British Government is greatly reducing its military force in the colonies. All the troops in New Brunswick have sailed for England, and it is more than probable that they will never be replaced.

It is said that the frauds in the New Orleans Custom House previous to the appointment of Collector Casey, will amount to $300,000. Several Customs officials and special agents are said to be implicated.

Miss Annie Surratt, so prominent in the assassination trial and in subsequent events, was married a few days since to Mr. Toney of the Surgeon General's office. The ceremony took place in a Washington Catholic church.

California holds two general elections this year; one in September for a Legislature; and in October for two justices of the Supreme Court. The retiring Judges are Lorenzo Sawyer and J. B. Crockett, both of San Francisco, the former a Republican and the latter a Democrat.

The Chicago Tribune thinks there are indications that the Northern Pacific Railway will be commenced without waiting for any subsidy in bonds. Their land subsidy covers 12,800 acres per mile of the very best uninhabited lands in this country, which ought to sell readily for $3 per acre as soon as the road penetrates them.

There is a cheerful uprising of virtuous indignation against the short petticoat and bare-leg drama in New York, under the lead of Mr. Butler, the dramatic critic of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, and a nephew of his uncle. There is some question whether it is in the interest of propriety or the dry goods' dealers.

The Journal of Commerce prints tables showing that the imports at New York for the month of May are nearly five millions greater than in 1868, and more than five millions above those of May, 1867; while at the same time, the net exports of specie was but about $2,100,000, against nearly $15,300,000 in May, 1868, and more than $8,500,000 in May, 1867.

The names of forty-one naval vessel were changed by Secretary Boris. Some of the names selected can hardly be deemed an improvement. Such names as Agamenticus, Casco, Canonicus, Tippecanoe, Saugus, and Tonawanda are abandoned for Terror, Hero, Scylla, Vesuvius Centaur and Architrite respectively. The Greek and Roman Mythology furnishes four-fifths of the new names, and the rest are either servile imitations of the British nomenclature of the biblical Saxons, Goliah and the like.

Missouri State bonds went up to two per cent. at New York recently, in consequence of the announcement that the interest due in July and thereafter, as well as the principal when it becomes due, will be paid in gold coin. This step is due in part to the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, limiting the effect of the legal tender act, and partly to the conviction of the State administration that this is the only honest way to meet the obligations of the State.

Secretary Boutwell has issued a circular to the several bureaus of the Treasury Department, ordering that hereafter no attorneys, claim agents, or other person or persons acting in his or their stead or behalf, shall be permitted to hold official intercourse with any employe, or have access to the records and files of the department or its bureaus, under any circumstances whatever, unless such attorney, agent or person has express written authority from the Secretary. All employes of the department are also instructed not to communicate either in or outside of the department any information in relation to the business thereof.

The Northern Pacific Railway.

The arrival here of a party connected with the Northern Pacific Railroad is a further indication that those who have this enterprise in hand are about to commence active operations upon it. It is stated that this party is charged with the duty of making a general examination of the country to be traversed west of the great north bend of the Missouri river. We gather the following particulars from the San Francisco Bulletin of June 28th.

The party consists of Thomas H. Canfield, general agent of the company, who was joined at Omaha, on his way hither, by W. M. Roberts, an able civil engineer from Pennsylvania; William S. Johnson, an engineer lately in the service of the Lake Ontario Shore Railroad; Mr. Moorhead, of the firm of Jay Cooke & Co., which has taken a large interest in the company; Sam'l. Wilkeson, a literary gentleman, who will write up the general results of the exploration for the press, and D. Clarton. The party will take a steamer at Olympia, examine the bays and harbor at Puget Sound and the Fuca Straits, and afterwards proceed to Walla Walla, whence they will go northeasterly to the Cour d'Alene and Pend d'Oreille lakes, and up Clark's fork of the Columbia to Montana, passing by Deer Lodge valley to Gallaton City, Helena and the Cadot and Mullen passes of the Rocky mountains. After examining these passes and exploring the upper portion of the Yellowstone, they will go down that river or the Missouri to the North bend near old Fort Clark, where they may be met by another party which has started from Lake Superior. The latter party consists of Governor J. G. Smith, of Vermont, President of the Western Pacific Railroad; Edwin F. Johnson, Chief Engineer of the company, and a number of other gentlemen connected with the enterprise.

We are informed that this party, after fixing the terminus of the road on Lake Superior, and making arrangements for the location and construction of the initial section, will proceed to Red river of the north, near Fort Abercrombie, and thence on to the Missouri river by Forts Ransom and Totten in Dakota, keeping close to the probable route of the road. Both parties will be escorted by Government troops wherever trouble with Indians is apprehended, and their reconnoisance will be preliminary to a thorough survey.

The election in Elko county, Nevada, resulted in the election of the entire Republican ticket, with the exception of the Sheriff and one County Commissioner.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

San Francisco, July 6.—The 4th was generally observed here yesterday. The procession was not a decided success, owing to the absence of nearly all the military from the city. At a late hour on Sunday night Gen. Ord gave notice to the Committee that owing to the inspection of forts and garrisons here by the Committee on Ways and Means, the regular troops would be prevented from joining the procession. The process on numbered 800 persons. Two thirds of the line was taken up by wagons and horses. The literary exercises were conducted in one of the. Henry Haughton delivered the ration and Lawrence Barrett read the Declaration of Independence. Wm. H. Gerard, who was present, was called for and delivered a short speech. It was received with cheers. The display of fire works in the evening, on the corner of Market and McAllister streets was witnessed by over 50,000 people and gave general satisfaction. With the exception of four alarms of fire and one boy injured by premature discharge of a pistol, no accidents happened to mar the festivities.

During a drunken brawl last night John Farrelly was stabbed in the abdomen by Jas Rogers. Farrely will probably die.

The Factory of the Pacific Wood Preserving Company on King street was entirely destroyed, with contents, by fire to day. Loss, estimated at $30,000

The U. S Branch Mint will be closed on Saturday of this week for settlement, consequent on a change of officers.

The Pacific Express Co. filed a certificate of incorporation on Saturday; capital, eight millions. It is reported that the Pacific Union Express Company will contest their right to use the name chosen.

The Pacific Insurance Company declared a dividend to day of 1 per cent., amounting to $30,000.

NEVADA.

Carson, Nev., July 6.—Priscilla Wilford, residing on Clear Creek, about four miles from this city, was found about 12 o'clock to day in her bed room with her throat cut from ear to ear. She was dressed in her night clothes and laying on the floor. No one was in the house but two little children, one of whom played in the room with the body all morning. Underneath her was found a razor three fourths closed. The body was covered with blood from head to foot; supposed to have been murdered. Considerable excitement was manifested. She had lost her husband but about five months ago.

Virginia, July 6.—The Supreme Court will hold a session in this city, commencing on the 12th inst. Cases requiring a full bench will be continued till August.

Geo. Prior and John Whepley exchanged nine shots, at Truckee, yesterday. Prior had his left shoulder broken, and Whepley was hit in the stomach, and it is feared mortally wounded: cause—jealousy.

Beele Butler fired a shot at Henry White, but gave Lotta Morton a severe wound by taking bad aim.

The heaviest shipment of bullion ever made from this city was that of Saturday the 3d inst., by Wells, Fargo & Co. of 43 bars, weight 4,013 pounds, value $105,730 02, and by the Union Pacific of 16 bars, 1,145 pounds, value $40,293 54. Total value, $146,023 56.

Stockton, July 5.—A man named Wm. Tuddy, working on a ranch, was thrown from a wagon yesterday and killed. He leaves a wife and nine children, who reside in Columbia.

OREGON.

Two Indians, convicted of stealing in Linn county, were sentenced to the penitentiary last week for two years each.

A German company from San Francisco are engaged in building a schooner at Gardiner, near the mouth of the Umpqua.

Advices from Canyon City state that on account of the scarcity of water, a great many miners have left their claims and gone to prospecting in the mountains.

Another number of an occasional publication, the Canyon City Journal, is issued. The paper is wholly devoted to attacks upon the Dalles and Boise military road.

A private of Co. F, 1st U. S. Cavalry, named —— Cummings, recently attempted suicide by shooting himself in the mouth, the ball tearing off the nose and left eye. At last accounts he was not expected to live.

The Albany Democrat thus accounts for the dearth of items in its last issue: It has been too warm for men to exert themselves cutting and shooting, and there hasn't been sufficient air stirring to fan a blaze into a flame so as to get up a fire.

A man named Glover attempted to disturb a camp meeting at Myrtle Creek, Douglas county, recently, and was rewarded for his pains by a sound thrashing at the hands of one of the brethren, and was afterwards arrested and fined $50 for the offense.

J. L. Allison announces that he will commence on the 17th inst. the publication of a weekly paper at Steilacoom to be called the Western Star. Mr. Allison will be remembered in Portland as the editor of a violent secession paper published here, in 1861

The Corvallis Gazette assures the Herald and Press that the recent election in that city was not conducted on party, but on temperance, issues. The Gazette says that those papers do some excellent mean great wrong in asserting that whisky and Democracy at Corvallis are synonymous terms.

From the Eugene Journal: The gentlemen who were selected to locate the lands for the endowment of an Agricultural College for this State, and who went south some time ago for that purpose, returned as far as this place during the week. We learn that they selected land in the Goose Lake valley, in Jackson county. The amount of the donation was ninety thousand acres.

From the Albany Register: We have been assured by several of our agricultural friends throughout the country that if a continuance of the present heated term prevails, with no rainfall, the yield of wheat per acre will be much less than that of former years. They tell us that a little rain will do an immense amount of good, while a heavy rain fall would be productive of much harm

Says the Roseburg paper: Last Tuesday a young man named George Bausby, of Green valley in this county, was left in charge of a four horse team attached to a reaper, when the team became restive and started, the wing the young man was in the swathe, by which a portion of one hand was taken, and one of his legs so badly lacerated that amputation will be necessary. His condition is considered critical.

From the Corvallis paper: Had it not been for the timely assistance of some passing teamsters, Mr. R. M. Thompson's residence, south of town, would have been destroyed by fire on last Monday. The family, except two little girls, were absent at the time. A spark from the cook stove caught in the kitchen roof which was in a huge blaze, when the teamsters upon it rushed to the assistance of the little girls, and saved the house. It was a remarkably narrow escape. During the dry weather, persons cannot be too careful about fire.

EVERY DAY, at No. 107 Front street, one door above McCormick's, you can see KANE'S CONDENSED SOAP [illegible]

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.—A chance to make one hundred dollars. We have it that W. C. Avery, the celebrated trance speaker and rope tier, will give one of his wonderful exhibitions of power to tie and untie himself. He ties himself in such a way that he gives any one the sum of one hundred dollars who will untie him if performed without the aid of spirits.

Performance on Tuesday night, July 6th, at Oro Fino Theatre. Doors open at 7½ o'clock; performance at 8½ o'clock. Front seats reserved for ladies. Admission, 50 cents: reserved seats, 75 cents.

THE DALLES to commence work on the East Side Railroad in July 1st. By that time the Company will have sufficient Railroad Iron on the way or in Portland to complete twenty miles of road. Workmen without employment should be patient for the Company will give employment to a thousand men, at good wages, and of course KOHN & FISHEL will continue to sell the very best clothing in that time at remarkably low figures.

That "Prince" passing through our city has indeed created an excitement. He claims to be on his way to the Wasco war. Irishmen claim him as their Patriot Englishmen don't claim him at all, and Kohn & Fishel claim to have the largest, best and finest stock of clothing and Gents Furnishing Goods in the city, and undertake to give sufficient proof that they are selling cheaper than any other house in Oregon

"LIFE SAVING AND LOST BANK."—The people of the city patronize the OREGON DISPENSARY in order to save money and procure a loan of longer life by using our FRESH, PURE and RELIABLE remedies, which are daily dispensed and preferred by the MOST RESPECTABLE and TALENTED PHYSICIANS in this city. Everybody takes a pull in patronizing our Store and thereby obtain DIVIDENDS by purchasing not only their medicines but also their toilet articles and other ictas, too numerous to mention. People say it is a pleasure to get sick and be cured at the Oregon Dispensary.

LORYEA & KALLENBERG,
73 First street, Portland.

INSURE.—Your attention is called to the advertisement of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Boston, in which you will find some clear statements and good reasons for insuring in that Company in preference to any other. The laws of Massachusetts are beneficent and equitable and allow of NO FORFEITURE for reason of non payment of premium. A policy of life insurance is a fortune—it makes us feel rich, brave, and provides for wife and darling little ones should we be called away. The value of human life is not to be measured by money. The end is not to be replaced by the means. Yet the end cannot exist without the means. Therefore, insure in the New England and make a bountiful provision for wife and little ones in case they should be deprived of your support.

We, the undersigned Committee appointed to decide upon the merits of the washing done by Kane's Condensed Soap with common Boiler, and the Automatic Boiler, decide that the washing done by KANE'S CONDENSED SOAP is the best, doing the work in a superior manner with less labor, no rubbing being done in using Kane's Soap; but that borax was used in the Automatic Boiler.
